TO: DIANA BAGRATIONI FOUNDATION

Dear ladies and gentlemen,

On behalf of The New Review, Inc. and "The New Review" magazine, I would like to thank you for your continued generous support of the Russian Documentary Film Festival. Your assistance as a partner of our corporation in the festival's public programs gives us an opportunity to continue the traditions of Russian film festivals abroad. With your partnership we were able to screen 24 documentaries made by Russian film-studios and Russian Diaspora's film-directors in 2013.

We especially would like to express our gratitude to Mrs. Diana Bagrationi whose enthusiasm and generosity give us opportunities to combine our efforts on this project.

During the last five years, "The New Review" and Diana Bagrationi Foundation have established close creative ties. We hope that our cooperation on the project of the Russian Documentary film festival in NYC will be continued in the future. We have numerous Russian documentaries that we can make available for screening at Tribeca Cinemas.

Once again, we would like to express our gratitude for your support in organizing the Sixth Russian Documentary Film Festival in 2013.

With utmost regard,

Marina Adamovitch
Curator of the RDFF,
The New Review, Inc.
