

THE STATE OF NEW YORK
OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Citation

Whereas, It is a longstanding tradition of the Office of the Attorney General to recognize those organizations that strengthen our communities and consistently endeavor to improve the well-being of New Yorkers; and

Whereas, Founded by cancer survivor, Diana Bagrationi, the Diana Bagrationi Foundation is committed to providing assistance to those in need, specifically families with children diagnosed with life-threatening illnesses by organizing charitable events such as concerts, exhibitions, and seminars to help fund treatments critical to their survival and recovery; and

Whereas, All proceeds from the events go directly to the hospitals that are providing treatments for pediatric cancer patients from underprivileged families in the United States and abroad; and

Whereas, The Diana Bagrationi Foundation has been recognized by the Governmental, Health and Community organizations across the world for their generous contributions to ensure that families have access to the care their children deserve; now therefore be it

Resolved, That on this, the Twenty-sixth Day of September, in the year Two Thousand Nineteen, the Office of the New York State Attorney General deems it right and fitting to honor the remarkable Diana Bagrationi for her many exceptional accomplishments and her numerous contributions to the healthcare system, the families and children in communities throughout the world, and the State of New York.
